OPEN CALL FOR CURATORS

2-5 NOVEMBER 2023
PAVILION 3 TORINO
ESPOSIZIONI

Kindly take note of the following dates: 2023

23 September	Deadline for submission of proposals
29 September	Announcement of result
1-2 November	Exhibition's set-up
2-5 November	The Others Art Fair (public opening)
5-6 November	Dismantling of the Exhibition

With the aim of encouraging curatorial research The Others Art Fair proposes for the third year the format that provides 3 deserving young curators (under 30) or curatorial collective the possibility to present a Curatorial Project for The Others 2023. The Others is a platform dedicated to emerging art, an international stage where the critical debate between different realities is enhanced.

The Curator should get in touch with an Exhibition Space based abroad and build a curatorial project with it, strengthening the synergistic cooperation between curator and exhibitor.

Three selected Curators will receive a prize of 1.000 €, while the Exhibitor will have a free booth at The Others, in Pavilion 3 – Torino Esposizioni, where the Curatorial Project will be presented.

Proposals are evaluated on merit of project, singularity of concept, and adherence to the application guidelines.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

The CALL is open to all curators under 30. The CALL is open to proposals by a single curator or by a Curatorial Collective. In case of Curatorial Collective, all members must be under 30.

The Exhibition Space must be based abroad Italy, and it must be its first participation at The Others.

GUIDELINES

- Proposals must be conceptually rigorous and focus on artists, projects, and themes that are innovative, challenging, and engaging.
- Extra consideration will be given to proposals that demonstrate a creative approach to curatorial research methods and the exhibition plan, as well as those that present ideas or topics that are not well-represented in the commercial sector.
- The proposal must include no more than three artists.
- Curators may not include their own work in the exhibition.
- The Others strongly encourages applications that contribute to our ongoing commitment to diversity.

- The strongest proposals are those that are flexible and have room for growth—as such, a proposed exhibition that has already been shown elsewhere will not be considered as strong an exhibition as one in which the curator is seeking to build upon previous work.

WHAT THE OPPORTUNITY INCLUDES

- Four days exhibition at The Others Art Fair, Pavilion 3 – Torino Esposizioni
- Curatorial support/mentoring from The Others Curatorial Board
- Opportunities to develop related public programming (one talk in our WEB TV)
- 1.000 € Prize
- 8 sqm free booth
- Press materials and PR support
- Presence in the catalogue and on the Fair website

VENUE AND EXHIBITION SPACE

The Others 2023 is located in Pavilion 3 of Torino Esposizioni, the former exhibition complex of the City, built by Ettore Sottsass senior in 1938. Pavilion 3, designed by Pier Luigi Nervi in 1950, is located in Via Petrarca 39/B, in San Salvario district, inside the historic Parco del Valentino.

Exhibition Space: 8 linear meters (a back wall of 4m and two side walls of 2m) and 12sqm surface area.

The walls of the exhibition space are made of white painted honeycomb wood panels (h. 300 cm - width 100 cm each).

Equipment of the exhibition space: 1 table, 2 chairs, 1 wastepaper bin, 1 electrical socket, 3 LED spotlights 50W each.

THE SELECTION PROCESS

After applications are screened for eligibility, The Others Curatorial Board will select a shortlist of 7 applicants. Only the first 3 curators will be able to present their project at The Others 2022.

The other 4 will be contacted if one of the 3 winners withdraws. All applicants will be notified of results by 29 September 2023.

The Projects presented will be selected by the Curatorial Board of The Others, led by Lorenzo Bruni, art critic and curator, and composed by Daniela Grabrosch, founder and editor in chief of YYYMMDD and curator, Lýdia Pribišová, art historian and curator.

The Others is a journey, a revolutionary project born eleven years ago with the aim of intercepting the language of the new generations, changeable and therefore needy of a reactive manifestation, independent and steeped in freedom.

The Others is oxygen, the short-circuit of a self-referential art system, unaware of the value of small emerging realities.

The Others gathers the global community of creatives, those who dare and express themselves through innovative exhibition projects, children of present and future.

The Others is a choice, a combative alternative, perhaps a little surly, but constructive, provocative, eccentric, nourished by hope, determination and energy.

Fundamental element of Turin's Contemporary Art Week, The Others reinforces its nature as an exhibition platform by calling on galleries, artist-run and project spaces, artists and curators collectives, and independent spaces.
